BEAL ESTATE NEWS.

The foreologure sales of the last six months as compared with the same period of 1897, show that there was a large falling off in the number and value of the prices of realty changing hands through forced sales. This is favorable to the present situation, because the smaller the count of property forced to sale the better the market is likely to be. The figures for last year were swelled by the sale of the Syndicate build-ing: at Nassau and Liberty streets, but even with that transaction omitted the difference is

There were 801 pieces, with incumbrances of $16,68,075, advertised for sale in the first six months of 1887. Of these, 393 pieces were purchased by the plaintiffs for $7,995,110; 244 pieces were sold to others for $6,503,067, and 186 pieces, with incumbrances of $5,016,915, were withdrawn. In the same period of 1896 there were only 694 pieces effered for sale, with incumbrances of $9,636,638, of which 443 were sold to the plaintiffs for $0,399,807,182 pieces to others for $5,390,769, and 09 pieces were withdrawn, representing incumbrances of $1,-077,869

Many real estate brokers are now making inquiries as to what must be done in various contingencies under the War Revenue act. One of the most perplexing things to determine is whether real estate brokers will have to pay an annual tax. The prevailing opinion is that they are not liable. At the same time the Treasury Department may think otherwise. There is no reason for assuming that Congress desired to discriminate is favor of real estate brokers, but the War Revenue act appears to have done so. It puts brokers into four classes—stock brokers, pawnbrokers, commercial brokers, and customhouse brokers.

W. B. Taylor & Bons. with Horace's. Hy & Co., have sold for William Baylis No. 7 West Forth-seventh street. Columbia University leasehold, lot 20.5x 100.5, on private terms.

SIGNS OF AN ADVANCE GREATER THAN LAST SUMMER

Wall Street occasionally gets in a waiting mood and the war with Spain is the particular event it has been waiting on this time.

Clear-headed investors, however, seem to have made up their minds not to wait any longer. They believe, and rightly, too, that the war will do nothing o retard the increasing prosperity of the country. Consequently they have been quietly buying bonds and hav now began to buy stocks.

THE BEST OF REASONS EXIST FOR BELIEVING THAT WE WILL HAVE A MARKET SUCH AS WE HAD LAST SUMMER AND, AS USUAL, IT WILL BEGIN IN JULY.
